

Activities:

Show photo, keepsakes, wedding favor, souvenirs and monument to children. Talk about what each one is. What do all these things have in common? (they help us to remember things: important people, family, events, trips, etc.) How is communion like these things?

Prepare a seder plate. Let children taste the Maror, Charoset and Karpas if they wish.

Give children the opportunity to pantomime cleaning each other's feet.

Take a clear glass and smear dirt around the inside of it. Wrap a piece of white paper around the glass so that none of the dirt can be seen. Ask children if the glass is clean or dirty. Take the paper off and show them that the glass is really very dirty. Jesus sees right through us, as if we are clear. He knows what is in our hearts. Explain that only Jesus can clean us from the inside out. Even if we appear clean on the outside (like Judas), without Jesus we are never really clean. We need Jesus in our hearts to clean out all the dirt of sin.

Coloring Page:

Encourage children to draw a picture of Jesus eating dinner with His disciples.

Modeling Dough:

Encourage children to use people cut-outs to each make a disciple to go around the table for the Last Supper.

Game:

Have children act out the last supper with toy bread and cups. They can also use dolls and dip their feet in water, talking about how Jesus washed His disciples' feet.
