My Grand-Dad

When my grand-dad was a lad, he did try his hand at a rock band. He had big, blond locks. It was the trend back then. But then his land did send him to fly a jet. He did land on sand when the wind did crash his jet. And that is when my grand-dad met my grand-mom. She was fond of him.

The two did bond and said, "We intend to wed." THE END!
