Life on the Ranch

My mom and dad said, "Let's try a life on a ranch!" They rented a plot of land with a well and printed the contract.

There they planted plums, grapes, pumpkins, and figs. We melted doing so much in the hot, hot sun. My dad lifted a big box and twisted his back. He handed the box to my mom, then landed on the grass. I acted like I was in shock, but I was not. My dad twists his back a lot. He thinks he can lift more than he can. That ended their plan for life on a ranch.
