Once Upon a Time

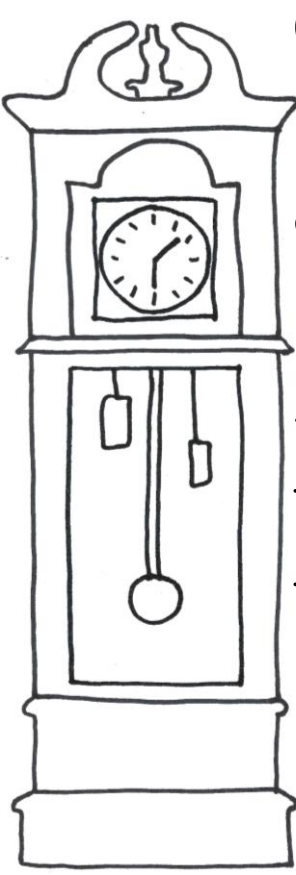

Once upon a time some mice ran to the clock by the gate. Once they got to the clock, they ran up to the top.

Once they ran to the top, a duck did spot them and clasped them with its bill.

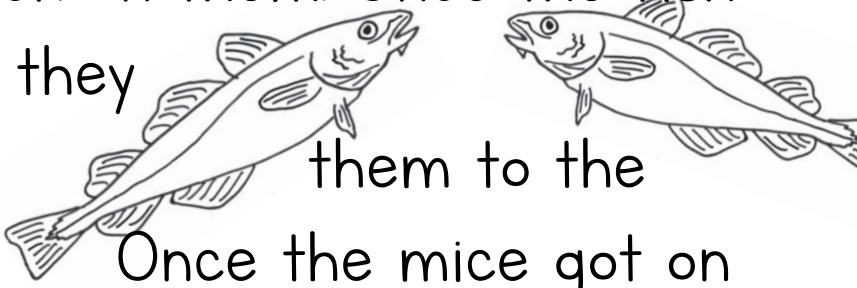

Once the duck got a taste of the mice, it spit them back into the pond. Once the mice fell into the pond, they made a big splash.

Once the mice splashed, the fish came up to check on them. Once the fish got close, they pushed them to the shore.

Once the mice got on the shore, they did try to dry off. Once the mice got dry, they ran to the clock by the gate.

When I Am Done

I am going to the last class of spring and then I am done. I am so glad to be a grad.

Since I am done, I will get to rest till ten in bed. When I am done with my rest, I will go for a picnic by a lake with a nice spruce or pine for shade.

When I am done with my picnic, I will sit on the edge of the dock and plunge into the lake. When I am done with my swim, I will go on a hike. When I am done with my hike, I will dance in my PJs and I do not care if my sis judges me for it. I am so glad to be done!
