My Trip to the City with Dad

My dad drove me into the city. It was such a nice time! The sky was so sunny. We went to a fest with lots of stands. At one stand we tossed

a fake ruby into a hole and got a trophy. We ate yummy candy. There was a fancy pony I got to ride for fifty cents. I just had one penny, but Dad gave me the rest.

There was a puppy that got a prize for being so cute. And there was a baby bunny. I asked Dad, "Can we take it home?"

"No," he said. What a pity!

There was a wavy glass that did make my body huge on one end and tiny on top. It was so funny! On the trip home, Dad's tire went bust.

But Dad is handy. He fixed it.
