We Have a King

The land did clap and sing, "We have a king! King Ling is the best!" He did help to catch the dragon by its wing. What will the king get? He got a string of gems from Empress Ying. She put a ring on Ling's hand. She did fling a red cloth on his neck. She put a brass band on his cap. When we said, "Thank you" to him, he just said, "It was no big thing." I wish I did get to be king!
