Baking For Dad

Baking with my big sis is my fave thing to do. We are making eggs and pancakes for Dad. It is his B-day! We made fresh OJ. I dropped eggs and wiped up my mess. I closed the box so no more can spill. My sis biked from the store with more things. I said hiking is best, but she did not think so. We step up to Dad's bed. He is snoring. Mom tuned up a song to wake him up. Dad smiled at the gift. He said he is glad we cared so much to make it for him. Mom said she was scared. Will Dad like it? We are hoping Mom does not ask if there is a mess on the stove.
