Cake Pops

We are making cake pops. They are lots of fun. You must mix them well. Mom has the list of things for them filed in a box. We baked them for a while. When they came up, we were licking them.

“No,” my mom said. “You do not lick them, you bite them.” We liked them more when we bit them. As Dad came home, he was backing into his spot. He ran onto the box with the list of things for the cake pops. Oh, no! What will we do? It is OK. Mom taped the list. She tapped Dad and said, “Have a cake pop?”
