The Talent Show

We watched a talent show in our town. There were quads that danced. They all looked the same. There was a squad that did a boot camp act. They did squats and lifted big bells.

A man in a tall hat did swap a swan for a squash. At least it was not a wasp! I would have to swat at it. I want to be in the show. But I do not have a talent that can fit in these walls. I swim. But if I swam here...the room would get a wash!
