Numbers 13:1-4a	Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "Send men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel. Of every tribe of their fathers, you shall send a man, every one a prince among them." Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of Yahweh. All of them were men who were heads of the children of Israel.
	After some time in the desert, the Israelites finally arrived at the promised land. Moses sent twelve spies into it to explore it before they were going to conquer it, like God had commanded them.
*Note to Teacher:	Students may have concerns about why God would send the Israelites into Canaan to take over someone else's land. God was not just giving the land to the Israelites as a gift. He was also using the Israelites as a means of punishing the Canaanites. Both non-religiously affiliated historical writings and archaeological evidence back up the Bible's accounts (Deut. 18:9-13) that the people of Canaan frequently sacrificed children and babies to their idols. By having the Israelites defeat the Canaanites, God was saving the lives of countless children. God's plan punished the people who killed innocent children. Centuries later, God would give Israel to a pagan nation, Babylon, to punish the Israelites for killing children, and mistreating the poor and immigrants (Jeremiah 7).

Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "Send men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel. Of every tribe of their fathers, you shall send a man, every one a prince among them." Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of Yahweh. spy (noun)

1. A person who secretly collects and reports information on a person or group considered their enemy or competitor.

Numbers 13:25-29

They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. They went and came to Moses, to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them and to all the congregation. They showed them the fruit of the land. They told him, and said, "We came to the land where you sent us. Surely it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. However, the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the children of Anak there. Amalek dwells in the land of the South. The Hittite, the Jebusite, and the Amorite dwell in the hill country. The Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along the side of the Jordan."

Make a pro & con list. Pros: Giant fruit, Land rich with milk and honey. Cons: People are strong, Cities are large and walled. What should be the tie-breaker? (God was on their side)

Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, "Let's go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it!" But the men who went up with him said, "We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we." They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature. There we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come from the Nephilim. We were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight."

The Israelites were not tall people. Many of the people in that land could have been as much as two feet taller. This could be scary. Imagine being about two feet shorter than everyone in your class. It might make you feel nervous when you first meet everyone. The Israelites would have to conquer these tall, strong people who were very talented at fighting. They forgot about all that God had done so far and were too scared. They compared the people to themselves instead of comparing them to God. Only Caleb and Joshua were brave and tried to encourage the people.

The average height of ancient Israelites is believed to be about five feet. Some of the Canaanites could have been one to two feet taller!
