Her Perfect Time

My gran sits on her porch when the sun sets. She says it is the perfect time of day. She reads her letters and looks out at the riv/er. She has a chick that sits on a perch in a cage. Her chick sings songs. Gran has a flow/er pot with ros/es. Her ros/es are red, pink, and white. She has a fern that hangs in a pot from the roof. Her fern needs a lot of wa/ter. One day, the fern falls down. Gramps gets the lad/der and a ham/mer to put it back up. Gran says thanks. Gramps says it is not as hard as going up a tower.
