

Name: _____

Date: _____

EA sometimes makes the short E sound.

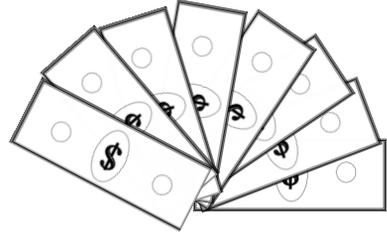

Color
Short E red.

Color
Silent A grey.

Color TH pink.

WEALTH

wealth

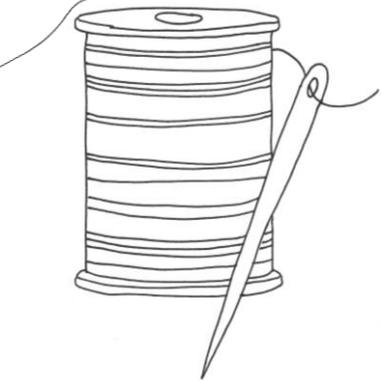

HEAD

head

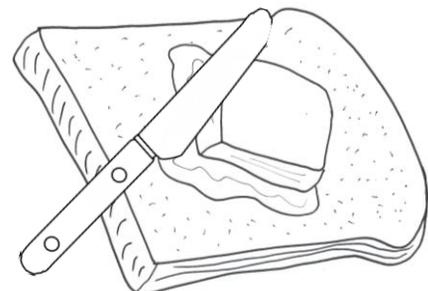

THREAT

threat

THREAD

thread

SPREAD

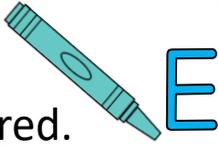

spread

Name: _____

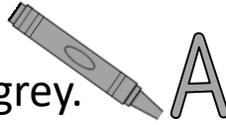

Date: _____

EA sometimes makes the short E sound.

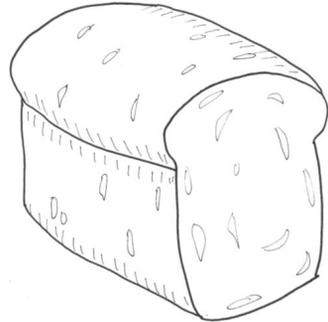

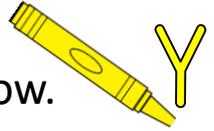

Color
Short E red.

Color
Silent A grey.

Color 2nd
Long Y yellow.

BREAD

bread

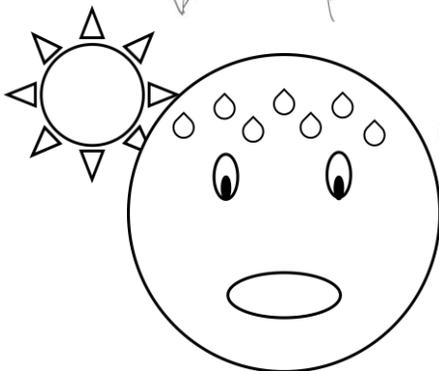

DEAD

dead

DEAF

deaf

SWEAT

sweat

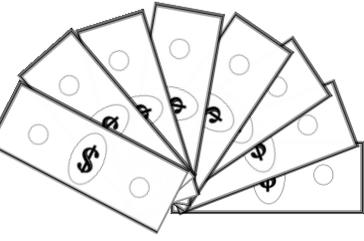

STEADY

steady

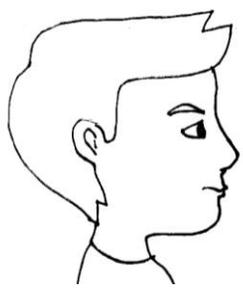

Name: _____

Date: _____

Write the word: one letter in each box.

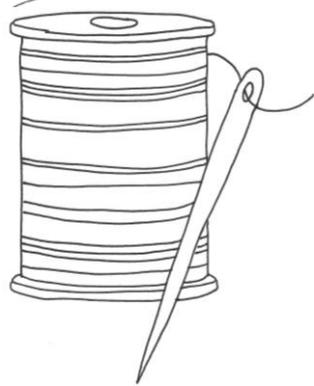

--	--	--	--	--	--

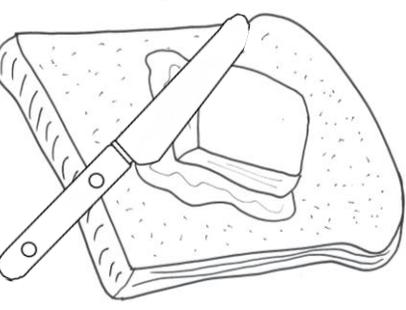

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--	--	--

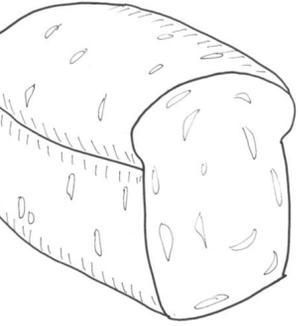

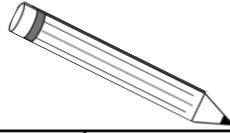

--	--	--	--	--	--

Name: _____

Date: _____

Write the word: one letter in each box.

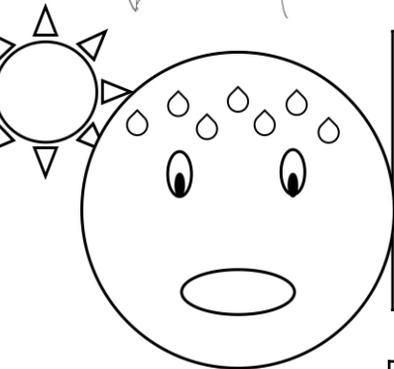

--	--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--	--	--

Name: _____

Date: _____

Color a star for each time the page is read.

Are You Ready?

“Are you ready?” Mom asked.

But the phrase fell on deaf ears. We did not hear what she said because we were spread on the rug with sweat on each

head.

“I am so tired I feel like I am dead!” my sis said.

Mom came up the stairs with a steady step.

“You two get ready!” she said.

I pulled a thread from the rug.

“Mom, we were dancing and jumping and playing tag. We are tired and cannot come.”

“Not for wealth or treats or threats,” my sis added.

“Oh, no?” asked Mom. “Not for fresh baked bread?”

My sis and I jumped up. Yes, for that, we will come!

